TRENDY Dining Guide

By Maggie Anderson

My husband Hank died last summer. two of our grandsons had to have their shepherd put to sleep shortly after. My brother's house burned to the ground in the LA fires, and our middle daughter's husband died a year and a day after Hank did.

I found myself constantly waiting for the other shoe to drop, and jumping out of my socks every time the phone rang.

When our oldest daughter died two weeks ago while I was in Japan, I saw that as the other shoe.

Apparently I have two left feet and the need of a third shoe because I have just been diagnosed with colon cancer and the other shoe has finally hit the floor.

This past year and a half has fed me into a woodchipper, then crammed me into a meat grinder, and pounded the results into poi.

Having not had enough time between mashings and shreddings, I've not yet gotten my arms around it all.

I know there must be a path forward out of the brush I'm just going to need the nose of a bloodhound, Jim Bridger's tracking skills, and the tenacity of an angry chihuahua to find it.

My paternal grandmother always told me to remember life wasn't all about me and that if I simply raised my head and looked around I would find many people who would gladly trade places with me.

I cling to her words. In times like these they are my life-line - but I'm still buyin' a ladder so I can see above everybody's heads to spot an eager taker.

OBITUARY

Dave Pruitt,

Dave Pruitt
1941 - 2025

Rogers David (Dave) Pruitt of Haverhill, NH, passed away peacefully on September 24, 2025 at the age of 84.

Dave was born in 1941 in Lynn Massachusetts to Rogers and Helen Pruitt. He graduated from Lynn English High School and then Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary where Dave earned both a B.A. and an M.A. of Divinity.

It was at Gordon College that Dave met the love of his life, fellow student Anna-Lisa Sillanpaa. Dave and Anna-Lisa were married in 1964. After finishing graduate school in 1966 they moved to Rhode Island, where Dave became minister of the United Baptist Church. After a few years in that role, Dave decided to try a different career.

In 1970 Dave landed a job in Massachusetts at Walpole High School and the couple, now with one-year-old son Ken in tow, moved to Randolph. He taught a variety of subjects during his 26 years there, including business, US history, English, psychology, typing and law.

In 1972 Dave and Anna-Lisa had their second son, Paul. In the 1970s and 80s the family enjoyed summer vacations in New Hampshire, frequently at Pine Knoll Campground in Albany. Dave enjoyed hiking with his family, especially Mt. Chocorua and Mt. Washington, something his sons still enjoy.

During those years, Dave was also a freelance sports writer for the Lynn Item, Salem Evening News, Quincy Patriot Ledger, and Boston Herald. He also organized and played in an informal Friday night hockey league in Quincy.

After their children had grown up, Dave and Anna-Lisa enjoyed spending weekends at bed and breakfasts throughout New Hampshire, one of them in Haverhill. Dave retired from teaching in 1996. A year later, he and Anna-Lisa moved to Haverhill, where they would live for 28 years.

Upon moving to Haverhill Dave decided to come out of retirement and return to the ministry, this time with the Congregational Church. He served five years as pastor at Haverhill Congregational Church, and then at Congregational Churches in Dalton NH, Bradford VT, Newbury VT, Wells River, VT, and finally for five years at West Newbury (VT) Congregational Church. He was well-known and well-loved for his sense of humor, his calm demeanor, his compassion, and his understanding of human nature.

Dave volunteered for several years as a lecturer on the topic of President Abraham Lincoln for the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Dartmouth College. Dave was such a fervent admirer of President Lincoln that in 2015, he and Anna-Lisa procured historical costumes and flew to Springfield, IL to participate in the 150th year reenactment of President Lincoln's funeral.

In keeping with a life of service to others, Dave volunteered as coordinator of transportation for disabled veterans (and as a driver himself) for the White River Junction VT VA Medical Center for several years. Dave was also an active member of the Cohase Lions Club of Woodsville, NH from 2008-2023, serving as President in 2017.

Dave is survived by his beloved wife of 60 years, Anna-Lisa Pruitt of Arlington, MA, son Ken Pruitt and daughter-in-law Teresa Doksum of Winchester MA, son Paul Pruitt of Mt. Pleasant SC, granddaughter Emma Pruitt and her husband

Michael Lee of Winchester MA, grandson Calvin Pruitt of Worcester MA, and granddaughter Laura Mitchell of Worcester MA.

A memorial service will be held on November 16 at 2:00 p.m. at West Newbury Congregational Church, 207 Tyler Farm Rd, West Newbury, VT. The service will be followed immediately by a burial service at West Newbury Cemetery and a reception at West Newbury Hall, located across the street from the Church.

We know that Dave would appreciate donations in his memory to either West Newbury Congregational Church, PO Box 83, West Newbury, VT 05085 (www.westnewburychurch.org/), or to the Upper Valley Haven, 713 Hartford Ave, White River Jct, VT 05001 (uppervalleyhaven.org/).

CHRISTMAS PARADE NOV 28TH, FIREWORKS OFF

The 38th annual Littleton Christmas Parade will be held on Friday, November 28, 2025 (the day after Thanksgiving) at 12 Noon. This marks the beginning of the holiday season in Littleton and the arrival of Santa Claus. This year's theme is "All I want for Christmas is . . ."

Executive Director Dennis Hartwell has indicated that this year's parade should be bigger than ever. "We have had many new entries register so far this year, AND so much earlier than usual" said Hartwell. "All I am concerned about is the weather. We need mild temperatures for parade day to confirm the bands that march." stated Hartwell. But we all know the parade will happen no matter what. "Santa HAS to come to town" says Hartwell.

Unfortunately, the drought and fire bans have caused us to cancel/postpone our annual fireworks display until 2026. This will be disappointing, but as Hartwell said optimistically, "We will roll the funds over until next year." Mother Nature is responsible for this, not the parade committee.

Parade week starts with the annual Christmas Parade Ball at the Littleton Elks Lodge on Saturday November 22, 2025. This is an event for people to put on their holiday best, dress up and come out for a night of fun. The Swing North Big Band from St. Johnsbury, VT will be performing and we guaranty you will have the time of your life! The Ball will be from 7 – 10 PM. For tickets, e-mail lttnxmasparade@aol.com.

OBITUARY Tammy Marie (Page) Caccavaro

Tammy Marie (Page) Caccavaro, age 57 of Haverhill, NH, passed at home surrounded by family on Monday, October 6, 2025.

Born July 1, 1968, at Cottage Hospital to Kathleen Page and Dale Davidson. She married the love of her life James "Jim" Caccavaro of Haverhill on September 6, 2009, surrounded by love. Tammy spent 34 years as an LNA enjoying every bit of her work. While residing in Haverhill she loved playing horseshoes, often beating Jim in their games, collecting jewelry, and putting puzzles together, often gifting them when finished.

She is survived by her son Sydney "Rocky" Clark, Jr., of Woodsville, NH, 2 grandchildren, her sister Wendy Davidson of Fairlee, VT, her brother Richard Davidson of Haverhill, NH, her sister Robin Davidson of South Royalton, VT, 8 nieces and nephews and her bestest girl Molly Ann.

She is predeceased by her husband, James "Jim" Caccavaro (2024), her mother Kathleen Page (2011) and her father Dale Davidson (1997).

As per Tammy's request there will be no services. A huge Thank You to the North Country Home Health and Hospice for the great care she was given in her final weeks.

To offer the family an online condolence please www.rickerfh.com

OBITUARY: Brandi Leigh Boucher,

North Haverhill, NH - Tyler.

Brandi Leigh Boucher, 48, passed away with her loving family by her side on Friday, October 10, 2025. She was a vibrant, strong woman who fought her cancer every step of the way and has left a legacy of love for her family to remember her by, and you can see it sparkle in the eyes of her grandchildren. She was born on September 19, 1977, in Woodsville, NH, to Pam O'Malley and James "Jim" Boucher. Brandi attended schools in the Woodsville area, graduating from Woodsville High School in 1995, where she was a member of the softball and cross-country ski teams. As expected, she was a force to be reckoned with as a catcher during her softball seasons. Brandi was also involved in Building Trades through River Bend Career and Technical Center, where she took part in multiple builds during her high school career. She married Jason Fullerton shortly after high school, and while they eventually took separate roads, the two of them were blessed with three sons, Jason Jr. and the twins, Austin and Spending time with her children was most important to her. She kept her home open for their friends, always offering her love and support.

Brandi worked as a culinarian by profession. She enjoyed knitting, organizing and attending craft fairs, and family trips to Pittsburg. Throughout her illness, she actively worked to help others with cancer by raising funds and advocating for cancer research. She created comfort kits to share with others who were in the midst of their treatment, knowing exactly what was needed and what would be appreciated.

In 2018, she met Andy Tomlinson, and they shared a life together. He brought Brandi a renewed appreciation of the outdoors, camping, bonfires, and hunting Red Stag, fishing on Back Lake with family, and camping on their land in Topsham.

Brandi's memory will be cherished by Andy Tomlinson; her sons, Jason D. Fullerton, Jr and his significant other Morgen Maerder, Austin J. Fullerton, and Tyler J. Fullerton and his wife Ari; her grandchildren, Jason D. Fullerton, III, Korra R. Fullerton and Mallory M. Fullerton; Andy's daughter, Lauren Tomlinson, husband Tyler and their children Madyn G. Davidson and Tatum M. Davidson, and his other daughter, Mason Tomlinson; her parents, James "Jim" Boucher and Pam O'Malley Anderson and step father Dennis Anderson; her siblings, Jeremy Timson and wife Danielle, their children Travis and Remi, sister Nicole Mitchell and husband John and their son John and her brother Forest Boucher. She also leaves behind many loving aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.

Memorial donations in Brandi's name may be made to Dana Farber Cancer Institute by mail at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, PO Box 849168, Boston, MA 02284-9168 or by the link below <https://danafarber.jimmyfund.org/site/Donation>

To offer the family an online condolence, please visit www.rickerfh.com Ricker Funeral Home & Cremation Care of Woodsville is assisting the family with arrangements.

So I am very sad to announce the passing of Brandi. She fought a very long and tough battle. It truly saddens me that her time with Trendy Times was nearly not enough. So I am now on the lookout for someone to do the trendy kitchen. I truly loved how she would do the article. So if this would be anything you'd be interested in, please feel free to email me at april@trendytimes.com.
